Dear Friends of Photography,

It is with great pleasure that I announce our next photo auction on 5 June at 6 pm CET at OstLicht, Gallery for Photography in Vienna.

This time it will take place together with the OstLicht Camera Auction, which starts at 1 pm.

This photo auction is primarily dedicated to classic black and white and vintage photography because we are convinced - in contrast to many short-term hyped trends - that this is where the greatest long-term value of this art segment can be found.

The auction will feature the third part of the exhibition prints from the "In Our Time" collection. Presented around 1990, this touring exhibition was the largest group show to date of the legendary Magnum photo agency, with around 280 photographs, and brings together iconic works by the most important Magnum photographers. The large-format b/w baryta prints and colour prints using the dye-transfer process are all signed or stamped.

Since 2009 and 28 auctions, we have been running the WestLicht Photo Auction, which has continued as the OstLicht Photo Auction since 2020.

I would like to thank our wonderful team with Marie Röbl, Francesca Catastini, Stefanie Stuböck, Michael Kollmann, Anna Kasmader, Kaiyue Li, Taiyoung Ha, Sanela Rezakhani, Christine Rumler, Janko Palkovic, Marcus Kollmann and our long-standing auctioneer Niki Schauerhuber very much for their joint work.

A special thanks goes to our independent expert Simone Klein. Simone has been an internationally recognised figure in photography for many years. She was Head of Photography at Kunsthau Lempertz for 9 years, and from 2007 to 2015 she was Director of the Photography Department at Sotheby's Europe, leading auctions in Paris, London and New York. From 2015, she was sales director at Magnum Photo. Since 2018, she has been working as an independent appraiser for photography.

I would like to invite you to come to Vienna and visit the two auctions in person. Vienna is always worth a visit, especially at this time of year. We can assure you that we will make your stay as pleasant as possible. For hotel bookings etc. we are at your disposal.

Of course, we are also happy to welcome you on the phone or via the Internet. On our homepage www.ostlicht-auction.com you can place bids or bid live without additional fees. You will also find high-resolution photos of the fronts and backs of the auction lots.

Simone Klein and Marie Röbl will personally guide you through the preview on 3 June from 6pm.

We would like to welcome you,
Peter Coeln and Team

Liebe Freundinnen und Freunde der Fotografie, mit großer Freude kündige ich unsere nächste Fotoauktion am 5. Juni um 18 Uhr MEZ im OstLicht, Galerie für Fotografie in Wien an.

Diese findet diesmal gemeinsam mit der OstLicht Camera Auction statt, die um 13 Uhr beginnt.

Diese Fotoauktion widmet sich vornehmlich der klassischen Schwarz-Weiß- und Vintage-Fotografie, weil wir – anders als in manch kurzfristig gehypten Trends – überzeugt sind, dass hier die größte langfristige Werthaltigkeit dieses Kunstsegments vorhanden ist.

In der Auktion kommt der dritte Teil der Ausstellungsabzüge der Sammlung "In Our Time" zur Versteigerung. Diese um 1990 präsentierte Wanderausstellung war mit rund 280 Fotografien die bis dahin größte Gruppenausstellung der legendären Fotoagentur Magnum und versammelt ikonische Werke der wichtigsten Magnum-Fotografen. Die großformatigen S/W-Barytabzüge und Farbabzüge im Dye-Transfer-Verfahren sind alle signiert oder gestempelt.

Seit 2009 und 28 Auktionen leiten wir die WestLicht-Fotoauktion, die seit 2020 als OstLicht-Fotoauktion weitergeführt wird.

Unserem wunderbaren Team mit Marie Röbl, Francesca Catastini, Stefanie Stuböck, Michael Kollmann, Anna Kasmader, Kaiyue Li, Taiyoung Ha, Sanela Rezakhani, Christine Rumler, Janko Palkovic, Marcus Kollmann und unserem langjährig bewährten Auktionator Niki Schauerhuber möchte ich sehr herzlich für die gemeinsame Arbeit danken.

Ein besonderer Dank geht wiederum an unsere unabhängige Expertin Simone Klein. Simone ist seit vielen Jahren eine international anerkannte Größe in der Welt der Fotografie. Sie war 9 Jahre lang Leiterin der Fotografie im Kunsthaus Lempertz, von 2007 bis 2015 war sie Direktorin der fotografischen Abteilung bei Sotheby's Europe und leitete Auktionen in Paris, London und New York. Ab 2015 war sie Verkaufsdirektorin bei Magnum Photo. Seit 2018 ist sie als unabhängige Gutachterin für Fotografie tätig.

Ich möchte Sie herzlich einladen, nach Wien zu kommen und die beiden Auktionen persönlich zu besuchen. Wien ist immer eine Reise wert, besonders zu dieser Jahreszeit. Wir können Ihnen versichern, dass wir Ihren Aufenthalt so angenehm wie möglich machen werden. Für Hotelbuchungen etc. stehen wir Ihnen gerne zur Verfügung.

Natürlich freuen wir uns auch, Sie am Telefon oder per Internet begrüßen zu dürfen. Auf unserer Homepage www.ostlicht-auction.com können Sie Gebote abgeben oder Live ohne zusätzliche Gebühren bieten. Auch finden Sie dort hochauflösende Fotos der Vorder- und Rückseiten der Auktionslose.

Simone Klein und Marie Röbl werden Sie am 3. Juni ab 18 Uhr persönlich durch die Vorbesichtigung führen.

Wir freuen uns auf Sie,
Peter Coeln und Team

White was one of the most important protagonists of American Pictorialism, a founding member of the Photo-Secession and a friend of Alfred Stieglitz. His early work was created in Newark in Ohio, where he worked as a bookkeeper in a grocery shop. Here he devoted himself to the everyday culture of small-town life, as in the present picture, which shows three girls playing a game of ring toss. It is one of his most successful motifs and copies in various techniques can be found in renowned collections, such as the Metropolitan Museum in New York or the Musée d'Orsay in Paris.

White zählt zu den bedeutendsten Protagonisten des amerikanischen Piktoralismus, war ein Gründungsmitglied der Photo-Secession und mit Alfred Stieglitz befreundet. Sein Frühwerk entstand in Newark in Ohio, wo er als Buchhalter in einem Lebensmittelladen arbeitete. Hier widmete er sich der Alltagskultur des Kleinstadtlebens, wie auch in der vorliegenden Aufnahme, die drei Mädchen bei einem Ringwurfspiel zeigt. Es ist eines seiner gelungensten Motive und Exemplare in unterschiedlichen Printtechniken befinden sich in namhaften Sammlungen, wie etwa dem Metropolitan Museum in New York oder im Musée d'Orsay in Paris.

EDWARD STEICHEN

'Auguste Rodin –
The Thinker', Paris 1902

Half-tone print (monochrome deep brown), printed in 1905 for "Camera Work 11", mounted on Japanese paper 30,4 x 20,5 cm, in excellent condition. Photographer's signature and date of exposure "MDCCCCII" in the lower negative.

LITERATURE Alfred Stieglitz, Camera Work, The Complete Illustrations 1903–1917, Cologne 1997, p. 230.

€ 1.200 / € 1.800 – 2.400

From 1901, Steichen spent a year working on a portrait of Auguste Rodin (1840–1917), the most important sculptor of his era. His studio was densely packed with blocks of marble as well as clay, plaster and bronze works. Steichen thus combined two negatives: a photograph with the sculpture "The Thinker" and a portrait format with Rodin in front of the marble relief of the "Monument to Victor Hugo", which he used in reverse (the original version was published in Camera Work in 1903). In the combined image, he used painterly effects to suppress the texture of the marble and bronze, thus emphasising the presence of the sculptures as living beings; he thereby succeeded in depicting the sculptor in a symbiotic relationship with the heroic world of his creations. This portrait is considered a major work of Pictorialism and was produced in various techniques; examples can be found in the most important collections of photographic art.

Ab 1901 beschäftigte sich Steichen ein Jahr damit, Auguste Rodin (1840–1917), den bedeutendsten Bildhauer seiner Epoche, zu porträtieren. Dessen Atelier war dicht mit Marmorblöcken sowie Ton-, Gips- und Bronze verstellt. Daher kombinierte Steichen zwei Negative: eine Aufnahme mit der Skulptur "Der Denker" und ein Hochformat mit Rodin vor dem Marmorrelief des "Denkmals für Victor Hugo", das er seitenverkehrt verwendete (in originaler Fassung publiziert 1903 in Camera Work). Im kombinierten Bild nutzte er malerische Effekte, um die Textur des Marmors und der Bronze zu unterdrücken und so die Präsenz der Skulpturen als lebendige Wesen hervorzuheben; damit gelang es ihm, den Bildhauer in symbiotischer Beziehung zur heroischen Welt seiner Schöpfungen darzustellen. Dieses Porträt gilt als ein Hauptwerk des Piktorialismus und wurde in verschiedenen Techniken produziert, Exemplare befinden sich in den bedeutendsten Sammlungen fotografischer Kunst.

"Soft, regular features are characteristic of Hopi young women, and no small part of a mother's time used to be devoted to dressing the hair of her unmarried daughters. The aboriginal style is rapidly being abandoned, and the native one-piece dress here illustrated is seldom seen even at the less advanced stage of the Hopi pueblos." (Caption by Curtis)

"Weiche, gleichmäßige Züge sind charakteristisch für die jungen Hopi-Frauen, und ein nicht geringer Teil der Zeit einer Mutter war früher dem Frisieren der Haare ihrer unverheirateten Töchter gewidmet. Die traditionelle Kultur verschwindet aber zusehends, und das hier abgebildete einteilige Kleid ist selbst in den weniger fortgeschrittenen Hopi-Pueblos nur noch selten zu sehen." The German physician Heinrich Kühn moved to Innsbruck for health reasons. As a photographer, he became the most important representative of Pictorialism in Austria. His photograph of two young women (among them Mary Warner) facing the wind on a sloping mountain meadow is one of his most appealing pictures. Kühn had already published a variant entitled "Windblown" in Stieglitz's magazine Camera Work in 1911, but it is only the present version that achieves a dynamism that effectively portrays the subject. At the same time, the composition is highly well-balanced, with a precise graphic organization of the pictorial elements, where the constellation of tonal values plays a central role. Hardly a single print of this outstanding picture ever enters the market.

Der deutsche Arzt Heinrich Kühn zog aus gesundheitlichen Gründen nach Innsbruck und wurde als Fotograf zum bedeutendsten Vertreter des Piktorialismus in Österreich. Seine Aufnahme von zwei jungen Frauen (darunter wohl Mary Warner), die sich auf einer abschüssigen Gebirgswiese dem Wind entgegenstellen, gehört zu seinen ansprechendsten Bildern. Eine Variante hatte Kühn bereits 1911 in Stieglitz' Zeitschrift Camera Work unter dem Titel "Windblown" publiziert, aber erst die vorliegende Fassung erreicht eine Dynamik, die das Thema wirkungsvoll zur Darstellung bringt. Gleichzeitig ist die Komposition in höchstem Maß ausbalanciert, wobei in der grafischen Organisation der Bildelemente auch die Konstellation der Tonwerte eine zentrale Rolle spielt. Von diesem gelungenen Werk gelangt kaum je ein Exemplar auf den Markt.

The photographs of the renowned painter and graphic artist Emil Orlik only became known in 1997. Alexa von Poremsky (1906–1981) appeared in over thirty films after taking acting lessons with Edith Eysoldt. She was admired above all for her naturalness and was photographed many times, including by Umbo. Orlik staged her as a Chinese nude in front of his covered easel.

Die Fotografien des bedeutenden Malers und Grafikers Emil Orlik wurden erst 1997 bekannt. Alexa von Poremsky (1906–1981) trat nach Schauspielunterricht bei Edith Eysoldt in über dreißig Filmen auf. Sie wurde vor allem für ihre Natürlichkeit bewundert und vielfach fotografiert, etwa auch von Umbo. Orlik inszenierte sie als chinesischen Akt vor seiner verhängten Staffelei.

Lillian Gish (1893–1993) was one of the biggest Hollywood stars during the silent film era. In 1925, she was given the role of Gretchen in the major UFA project of a "Faust" film directed by Wilhelm Murnau. Orlik must have gotten to know her at this time. During the photographic session, only profile shots were taken. Afterwards, Gish commissioned an oil painting based on one of these photos from him, which remained in her possession until her death.

Lillian Gish (1893–1993) war einer der größten Hollywood-Stars während der Ära des Stummfilms. 1925 erhielt sie die Rolle des Gretchen im großen UFA-Projekt einer "Faust"-Verfilmung unter der Regie von Wilhelm Murnau. In dieser Zeit muss Orlik sie kennengelernt haben. Bei der fotografischen Sitzung entstanden ausschließlich Aufnahmen im Profil. Danach beauftragte ihn Gish, ein Ölbild nach einem dieser Fotos zu malen, das sich bis zu ihrem Tod in ihrem Besitz befand.

Anton Josef Trčka received his photographic training in Karel Novák's photography class at the "Graphische Lehr- und Versuchsanstalt". From 1925, he worked in the studio of photographer Hella Katz at Stubenring in Vienna, where he ran the "Ringwerkstätten für Kunsthandwerk und Lichtbildkunst" from 1926 to around 1934. In the staging of his nudes, he took his inspiration from Art Nouveau, which set him apart from contemporary approaches. The back nude of a crouching woman shows this in the precise composition of the figure made up of corresponding formal elements. Original prints by Trčka are rare collector's items, as the majority of his work was destroyed by a bomb in 1944.

Anton Josef Trčka erhielt seine fotografische Ausbildung in Karel Nováks Fotoklasse an der Graphischen Lehr- und Versuchsanstalt. Seit 1925 arbeitete er im Atelier der Fotografin Hella Katz am Wiener Stubenring, wo er von 1926 bis etwa 1934 die "Ringwerkstätten für Kunsthandwerk und Lichtbildkunst" betrieb. Wichtige Impulse fand Trčka im Jugendstil, was sich auch in der Inszenierung seiner Aktaufnahmen niederschlug, die sich darin von zeitgleichen Ansätzen unterscheiden. Im Rückenakt einer Kauernden zeigt sich dies in der präzisen Komposition der Figur aus korrespondierenden Formelementen. Originalabzüge von Trčka sind seltene Sammlerstücke, da 1944 ein Bombentreffer den Großteil seines Werkes zerstörte.

The "Movement Study" is Koppitz's most famous work, which he printed in various techniques and was sold as far away as America. Members of the dance troupe of Claudia Issachenko served as models. One dancer poses as a nude in a strong backbend in front of three dark-robed colleagues. Their heads, positioned close to each other, form a flat arch that bounds the figure arrangement at the top; below, their pairs of feet, aligned in the same direction, form a horizontal row. Koppitz perfected this carefully structured composition with a closed outline through negative retouching.

Die "Bewegungsstudie" ist Koppitz' berühmtestes Werk, das er in verschiedenen Printtechniken abzog und bis nach Amerika verkaufen konnte. Als Modelle fungierten Mitglieder der Tanzgruppe von Claudia Issatschenko. Eine Tänzerin posiert als Akt in einer starken Rückbeuge vor drei dunkel gewandeten Kolleginnen. Deren eng nebeneinander positionierte Köpfe bilden einen flachen Bogen, der das Figurenarrangement oben begrenzt, unten bilden deren gleichgerichtete Fußpaare eine horizontale Reihe. Diesen sorgfältig strukturierten Aufbau mit geschlossener Umrisslinie perfektionierte Koppitz durch Negativretusche.

"Heddy Kiesler, who lives in Vienna, is declared by experts of being the most beautiful living girl of Europe. Discovered by Reinhardt this season, she played a small role in the cast of his production 'Das schwache Geschlecht' in Vienna. Since then her career to triumph began, but quite contrary to the usual ideas, she did not take advantage of it, except in one case where she played in one of the Austrian Movie Productions. Miss Kiesler is not yet seventeen years old. She lives with her parents, her father being one of the leading executives of Vienna, in the Villa Section of Vienna near the Hohe Warte, closeted up from all what is characteristic for public beauties. She has two offers to go to America and one to go to England from people who have seen her here in Vienna. According to Austrian Law it is not permitted for a minor to leave the parental home, without the consent of the parents, but Miss Kiesler does not even think of sloping against their will. Maybe the main moment of her shyness is the fact that last year a young man who had courted her committed suicide. She has been very melancholy since then. Contrary to all modern success of beauty, she has never taken part in any beauty contest." (Agency text on the reverse of the print)

Under the title "Antlitz der Zeit" (Face of Time) and with a foreword by Alfred Döblin, August Sander first published sixty photographs of his legendary portrait cycle in 1929. The picture atlas is divided into seven sections devoted to different professions or social groups. This motif is part of the group "The Skilled Tradesman, II/11 Working Types – Physical and Intellectual". Sander's style-setting, sober presentation is intended to stimulate a comparative observation and aims at a photographic social analysis of the Weimar Republic. As one of the main representatives of Neue Sachlichkeit, Sander paved the way also for conceptual photography.

Das vorliegende Motiv ist Teil der Gruppe "Der Handwerker, II/11 Arbeitertypen – physisch und geistig". Willy Zielke was the director, photographer and camera man of the so-called "prologue" in the first of Leni Riefenstahl's two Olympic films (whose co-operation the dominant filmmaker later preferred to conceal). Images of athletes in various disciplines against the backdrop of ancient temples on the Acropolis are followed by a group of naked dancers, beginning with the hoop-dancer depicted in this film still. The print is in unusually good condition and shows both the movement and the dramatic lighting of the scene.

During the Soviet blockade of Berlin in 1948/49, American transport planes brought supplies to West Berlin by airlift, often with four-engined Douglas C-54 Skymaster aircrafts, as in this felicitous photograph. When aeroplane crews began dropping sweets and raisins for the waiting children on their own initiative shortly before landing and the actual distribution, they were known as "raisin bombers".

Während der sowjetischen Berlin-Blockade 1948/49 brachten amerikanische Transportflugzeuge Nachschub per Luftbrücke nach West-Berlin, häufig mit viermotorigen Maschinen vom Typ Douglas C-54 Skymaster, wie in dieser gelungenen Aufnahme. Als Flugzeugbesatzungen in Eigeninitiative damit begannen, kurz vor der Landung und der eigentlichen Verteilung, Süßigkeiten und Rosinen für die wartenden Kindern abzuwerfen, nannte man diese "Rosinenbomber".

The photograph was taken at the "fête des gondoles", a street parade in Choisy-le-Roi, where Doisneau's girlfriend Pierrette lived. The photographer saw in the man with his home-made aeroplane the absurdity of everyday life that inspired him and he followed him for a long time; his biographer Peter Hamilton described the motif as "one of his most telling portraits of the banlieusard".

Die Aufnahme entstand beim "fête des gondoles", einem Straßenumzug in Choisy-le-Roi, wo Doisneaus Freundin Pierrette lebte. Der Fotograf sah in dem Mann mit seinem selbstgebastelten Flugzeug jene Absurdität des Alltags, die ihn begeisterte und er folgte ihm längere Zeit; sein Biograf Peter Hamilton beschrieb das Motiv als eines seiner aussagekräftigsten Bilder vom Leben in den Pariser Vorstädten.

When Strand was in Mexico from 1932 to 1934, he not only worked on the filming of "Redes" (Nets), directed by Fred Zinnemann, but also took legendary photographs. Twenty of these were published in 1940 as hand-pulled photogravures; today these are long out of print. A second edition, which appeared in 1967 under the title "The Mexican Portfolio", is also almost impossible to find. In 1997, Aperture published six individual images from the portfolio as high-quality photogravures, produced by the renowned printer Jon Goodman. These include the photograph of the boy sitting in the shade in the Mexican state of Hidalgo, which is one of Strand's best-known motifs.

Als sich Strand 1932 bis 1934 in Mexiko aufhielt, widmete er sich nicht nur den Dreharbeiten für "Redes" (Netze) unter der Regie von Fred Zinnemann, sondern nahm auch legendäre Fotografien auf. Zwanzig davon wurden 1940 als handgezogene Tiefdrucke aufgelegt; diese sind heute längst vergriffen. Eine zweite Auflage, die 1967 unter dem Titel "The Mexican Portfolio" erschien, ist ebenfalls kaum noch greifbar. Aperture hat 1997 sechs Einzelbilder aus dem Portfolio als hochwertige Fotogravuren herausgegeben, angefertigt von dem anerkannten Fotograveur Jon Goodman. Darunter die im Bundesstaat Hidalgo entstandene Aufnahme mit dem im Schatten sitzenden Jungen, die zu den bekanntesten Motiven Strands gehört.

At the age of fourteen, Roman Freulich fled his homeland Poland from the Nazis and soon became a still photographer at Universal Pictures in Hollywood. Boris Karloff's portrait in his role as the monster promoted the second Frankenstein film by James Whale. The angular monster head with the sadly empty look was considered a timeless icon of surreal horror. It influenced the make-up artists of many of the undead in film history until today.

Im Alter von vierzehn Jahren floh Roman Freulich aus seiner Heimat Polen vor den Nazis und wurde in Hollywood bald darauf Standfotograf bei Universal Pictures. Seine Aufnahme von Boris Karloff als Monster bewarb 1935 den zweiten der drei Frankenstein-Filme unter der Regie von James Whale. Der kantige Monsterkopf mit dem traurig-leeren Blick galt als zeitlose Ikone des surrealen Horrors und war Vorlage für die Maskenbildner zahlreicher Untoter der Filmgeschichte.

Alfred Stieglitz is undoubtedly one of the central protagonists in the history of photography, who, as an author of images and texts as well as an editor and gallery owner, shaped significant developments from Pictorialism to the modern visual language. Georgia O'Keeffe became known for her paintings of large-format flowers, which are among the most expensive works of art today. Stieglitz was the first to exhibit her work in 1916, the two became a couple and his photographs of her became legendary. As O'Keeffe's popularity grew in the 1930s and her relationship with Stieglitz became difficult, she retreated to New Mexico, where she painted animal skulls and desert landscapes. The portrait illustrates both the bond and the estrangement between the two famous artists.

Alfred Stieglitz zählt zweifellos zu den zentralen Protagonisten der Fotogeschichte, der sowohl als Bild- und Textautor wie auch als Herausgeber und Galerist maßgebliche Entwicklungen seit dem Piktoralismus bis zur modernen Bildsprache prägte. Georgia O'Keeffe wurde für ihre Gemälde mit großformatigen Blumen bekannt, die heute zu den kostspieligsten Kunstwerken zählen. Stieglitz stellte 1916 als erster ihre Werke aus, die beiden wurden ein Paar, seine Aufnahmen von ihr legendär. Während O'Keeffes Popularität in den dreißiger Jahren wuchs und ihr Verhältnis zu Stieglitz schwierig wurde, zog sie sich nach New Mexico zurück, wo sie Tierschädel und Wüstenlandschaften malte. Das Porträt verdeutlicht sowohl die Verbundenheit wie auch die Entfremdung der beiden berühmten Kuschaffenden.

At the end of 1941, he contacted Albert Einstein, who eventually received him in his office at the Institute for Advanced Study. Vishniac photographed the Nobel Prize winner smoking a pipe while working at his desk and at a blackboard. The resulting portraits were among Einstein's favourite pictures.

Before Werner Bischof turned to photojournalism after the Second World War, he devoted himself to studio work as a fashion and advertising photographer and, as a freelancer, primarily to still lifes. Until the 1940s, his work was characterised by calm, formally perfect images in which the design principles of his teacher at the Zurich School of Arts and Crafts, Hans Finsler, continued to have an impact. From 1942, Bischof published his first pictures in the monthly magazine "Du", including this impressive shot of a bison skull on a sandy ground, which also appeared in the "U.S. Camera". The enigmatic shadow and the footprint recognisable in it reveal the influence of Surrealism; the print on offer is a rare collector's item.

Bevor sich Werner Bischof nach dem Zweiten Weltkrieg dem Fotojournalismus zuwandte, widmete er sich als Mode- und Werbefotograf der Studioarbeit und als Freischaffender vor allem dem Stilleben. Bis in die 1940er Jahre war sein Werk durch ruhige, formal perfekte Bilder gekennzeichnet, in denen die Gestaltungsprinzipien seines Lehrers an der Zürcher Kunstgewerbeschule Hans Finsler fortwirkten. Ab 1942 publizierte Bischof seine ersten Bilder in der Monatszeitschrift "Du", darunter diese eindrucksvolle Aufnahme eines Bisonschädels auf sandigem Untergrund, die er auch in der "U.S. Camera" veröffentlichte. Der enigmatische Schatten und der darin erkennbare Fußabdruck lassen den Einfluss des Surrealismus erkennen; der angebotene Abzug ist ein seltenes Sammlerstück.

The American Harry Callahan, an important proponent of Subjective Photography, was an engineer in his first profession. Clear and precise compositions as well as technical perfection characterize his images. His preferred model was his wife Eleanor, who he shows here from afar as a standing nude on a dune top. Growing up as the son of Greek migrants in the USA, Manos followed in the footsteps of his ancestors in the early 1960s, documenting everyday culture in remote island villages where he was confronted with poverty, isolation and ancient, deeply rooted traditions. Following the humanistic photography of Henri Cartier-Bresson, he imbues each image with a multitude of connotations and unique details.

Aufgewachsen als Sohn griechischer Migranten in den USA, begab sich Manos in den frühen 1960er Jahren auf die Spuren seiner Vorfahren und dokumentierte die Alltagskultur in abgelegenen Insel-Dörfern, wo er mit Armut, Isolation und uralten, tief verwurzelten Traditionen konfrontiert wurde. Der humanistischen Fotografie von Henri Cartier-Bresson folgend, verleiht er jedem Bild eine Vielzahl von Konnotationen und einzigartigen Details.

In 1965, Bruce Davidson spent ten days photographing the mining communities of the Ebbw Valley in South Wales. His pictures show the industrial decline of a scarred landscape, broken by mineshafts and smokestacks, and its inhabitants, the "Welsh Miners". Davidson also found "lyrical beauty" in their lives, despite their barrenness. This is particularly evident in this motif of a horse lying in a field, prints of which can be found in important collections such as the Metropolitan Museum in New York.

1965 fotografierte Bruce Davidson zehn Tage in den Bergbaugemeinden des Ebbw Valley in Südwales. Seine Bilder zeigen den industriellen Niedergang einer von Minenschächten und Schornsteinen zerrissenen Landschaft und ihre Bewohner, die "Welsh Miners". In deren Leben fand Davidson bei aller Kargheit auch "lyrische Schönheit". Dies zeigt sich besonders in diesem Motiv eines Pferdes, das in einem Feld liegt; Abzüge davon befinden sich in bedeutenden Sammlungen, etwa im Metropolitan Museum in New York.

The cover motif of Elliott Erwitt's Paris book is an homage to Cartier-Bresson's famous "Puddle jumper" from 1932 and yet a typical Erwitt, most obvious in the umbrellas of the lovers in the background. He is one of the most distinguished representatives of humanistic photojournalism, and in his masterful snapshots he is particularly characterised by his humour. The book drew an essence of Erwitt's best shots from the Seine metropolis. It was here that he had been born to Russian-Jewish parents. At the age of 11, Erwitt had to emigrate to the USA, where he began taking photographs and became a full member of Magnum in 1953.

Das Titelbild des Paris-Buches von Elliott Erwitt ist eine Hommage an den berühmten "Pfützenspringer" von Cartier-Bresson von 1932 und dennoch ein typischer Erwitt, am deutlichsten erkennbar an den Schirmen des Liebespaares im Hintergrund. Er gehört zu den profiliertesten Vertretern des humanistischen Fotojournalismus, und in seinen meisterhaften Schnappschüssen zeichnet er sich besonders durch seinen Humor aus. Erwitts Paris-Buch zog eine Essenz seiner besten Aufnahmen aus der Seine-Metropole. Hier war er als Sohn russisch-jüdischer Eltern zur Welt gekommen. Mit 11 Jahren musste Erwitt in die USA emigrieren, wo er zu fotografieren begann und 1953 Vollmitglied bei Magnum wurde.

Shortly after moving to Paris, the Italian photographer Frank Horvat began taking pictures in the vibrant nightlife of the famous variety theatres, resulting in his photo book "Strip-Tease". He not only captured the performances of the scantily clad ladies, but also backstage moments in notorious clubs such as the Folies-Bergère, Sphinx or Moulin-Rouge. Horvat's visual aesthetic is characterised by his talent for tracking down astonishing compositions, often combining his pictorial elements in the depth axis and working with leaps in scale and focus (a skill he later continued in his fashion stagings).

Kurz nach seinem Umzug nach Paris begann der italienische Fotograf Frank Horvat im lebhaften Nachtleben der berühmten Varietés zu fotografieren, woraus sein Fotobuch "Strip-Tease" entstand. Er hielt nicht nur die Auftritte der spärlich bekleideten Damen fest, sondern auch Backstage-Momente in berühmten Clubs wie den Folies-Bergère, Sphinx oder Moulin-Rouge. Horvats visuelle Ästhetik ist geprägt von seinem Talent verblüffende Kompositionen aufzuspüren, wobei er seine Bildelemente häufig in der Tiefenachse kombiniert und mit Maßstabs- und Schärfesprüngen arbeitet (ein Kunstgriff, den er später in seinen Modeinszenierungen weiterführt).

Vogelmann was an advertising, press and fashion photographer before entering the film industry in the mid-1950s, where he worked as a still photographer. When Romy Schneider achieved international success with the Sissi trilogy, he took studio portraits of her, which were also distributed as postcards. In this context, Vogelmann created this collage, which was used for the cover of one of the first biographies of the star.

Vogelmann war Werbe-, Presse- und Modefotograf, bevor er Mitte der 1950er Jahre zum Film kam, wo er als Standfotograf arbeitete. Als Romy Schneider mit der Sissi-Trilogie zunehmenden internationalen Erfolg erlangte, nahm er Studioporträts von ihr auf, die auch als Postkarten vertrieben wurden. In diesem Kontext schuf Vogelmann die Montage, die für das Cover einer der ersten Biografien des Stars Verwendung fand.

Milton Greene met Marilyn Monroe when he photographed her for Look magazine in 1953. The two started a production company and became friends. This close relationship is also apparent in many of his photographs. The portrait was taken shortly before the shooting of the movie "Bus Stop" which was praised by the critics especially for Monroe's acting performance. Like in her role as the entertainer Cherie in this film, she also wore a black derby, a bustier and fishnet stockings during Greene's studio session.

Milton Greene lernte Marilyn Monroe kennen, als er sie 1953 für die Zeitschrift Look fotografierte. Die beiden gründeten eine Produktionsfirma und befreundeten sich. Dieses Naheverhältnis ist auch in vielen seiner Aufnahmen spürbar. Das Porträt entstand kurz vor den Dreharbeiten zum Film "Bus Stop", der von der Kritik besonders für Monroes schauspielerische Leistung gelobt wurde. Wie in ihrer Rolle der Animierdame Cherie trug sie auch bei Greenes Studioaufnahme einen schwarzen Derby, ein Bustier und Netzstrümpfe.

Arthur Miller, Chicago

Vintage silver print on glossy paper, in good condition. Photographer's credit stamp in red ink and later photocopy of a label on pink paper, showing his handwritten and stamped note "Arthur Millers Lieblingsfoto von M. - hängt in seinem Arbeitszimmer" on the reverse.

The photo was taken during Monroe's promotional tour for "Some like it hot" at the hotel Ambassador in Chicago and shows her in a bright shiny dress with a radiant smile, which is directed at her husband Arthur Miller. The dark figure of his back, cropped from the right edge of the frame, forms a perfect compositional counterpart. Thus, the photographer succeeded in capturing a private, seemingly light-hearted moment in the context of an official event. The following year, the marriage entered a final crisis and in 1962, Miller married the photographer Inge Morath, whereas Monroe died a few months later. When a print of this motif appeared in a Christie's auction of items from Monroe's personal property in 1999, it was practically unknown and fetched USD 20.700.

Die Aufnahme entstand während Monroes Promotiontour für "Some like it hot" im Hotel Ambassador in Chicago und zeigt sie in einem hell-glänzenden Kleid mit einem strahlenden Lachen, das ihrem Ehemann Arthur Miller gilt. Dessen vom rechten Bildrand angeschnittene, dunkle Rückenfigur bildet einen perfekten kompositorischen Konterpart. Dem Fotografen gelang es damit, einen privaten, scheinbar unbeschwerten Moment im Rahmen eines offiziellen Anlasses pointiert zu erfassen. Bereits im darauffolgenden Jahr geriet die Ehe in eine finale Krise und 1962 heiratete Miller die Fotografin Inge Morath, während Monroe wenige Monate später starb. Als ein Abzug dieses Motivs 1999 in einer Christie's-Auktion von Gegenständen aus Monroes persönlichem Besitz auftauchte, war es praktisch unbekannt und erzielte 20.700 USD.

After his early successes, which made Frank Sinatra the musical idol of the world war generation, he experienced a crisis at the beginning of the 1950s. It was mainly in films that the star re-gained popularity. This portrait was taken while working on Otto Preminger's film about a drug addict in Chicago's slums, "The Man with the Golden Arm". As the session had gone well, Sinatra was in high spirits when he and Willoughby visited a small park next to the studio.

In the heyday of Italian cinema, the last great works of classic Hollywood films were also produced in the Roman Cinecittà production studios. The import of the American star system led to the emergence of new professional fields for photographers. The Italian still photographer Pierluigi Praturlon, whose pictures promoted over 400 films, was also one of the pioneers of paparazzo photography. Gina Lollobrigida became a film star and sex symbol in the 1950s. She threw lavish parties in her sprawling villa on the Via Appia Antica. This was also the case on New Year's Eve in 1964, where she can be seen in this photo with Vittorio Gassman, Renato Ranucci and Claudia Cardinale.

When Winogrand published his photo book "Women Are Beautiful" in 1975, his radical snapshot aesthetic was shocking: He photographed women in public spaces in unobserved – not always favourable – moments, usually in the midst of movement, talking, smoking or eating. The present motif differs in that one can speak of a classically successful capture: Here, the focus is not only on the woman who is calmly holding her ice cream, lost in thought, but also on the observer within the picture, who is also eating ice cream.

Als Winogrand 1975 das Fotobuch "Women Are Beautiful" herausbrachte, schockierte seine radikale Schnappschuss-Ästhetik: Er fotografierte Frauen im öffentlichen Raum in unbeobachteten – nicht immer vorteilhaften – Momenten, meist mitten in Bewegung, beim Sprechen, Rauchen oder Essen. Das vorliegende Motiv weicht insofern ab, als man von einem klassisch-gelungenen "Bildfund" sprechen kann: Hier liegt der Fokus nicht nur auf der Frau, die gedankenverloren ruhig ihr Eis hält, sondern auch auf ihrem bild-internen, ebenfalls Eis-essenden Beobachter.

From the 1940s, Siskind developed an abstract lyrical visual language and increasingly focussed on surface structures such as walls with peeling paint, stained walls, erosion or rotten wood. In 1945, he published the photo series "The Drama of Objects", in which he refers to the magic of inanimate objects. His pictorial compositions achieved a painterly quality that anticipated the works of the Abstract Expressionists. Prints of the present motif can be found in prominent museum collections.

Ab den 1940er Jahren entwickelte Siskind eine abstrakt-lyrische Bildsprache und konzentrierte sich zunehmend auf Oberflächenstrukturen wie beispielsweise Wände mit abgeblätterter Farbe, fleckige Mauern, Erosion oder verfaultes Holz. 1945 veröffentlichte er die Fotoserie "The Drama of Objects", in der er auf die Magie unbelebter Gegenstände hinweist. Seine Bildkompositionen erreichten eine malerische Qualität, die die Werke der Abstrakten Expressionisten vorwegnimmt. Abzüge des vorliegenden Motivs befinden sich in prominenten Museumssammlungen.

Known for his object art, performative sessions and postcard collages, Padhi Frieberger also pursued his artistic interests in numerous photographic stagings with children. These were increasingly created from 1964 onwards, when Padhi's sister and her son Walter – "Jawo" – stayed with the artist at Haggenberg Castle for some time. In this photograph, Jawo with a self-made wind instrument can be seen behind a seated man. The setting combines planned staging and composition with the aesthetics of a snapshot (note the scene in the picture axis with the boy turning upwards to the woman at the window, while below a dog's profile protrudes into the frame).

In der vorliegenden Aufnahme ist Jawo mit einem selbstgebastelten Blasinstrument hinter dem sitzenden Mann zu sehen. Padhi Frieberger used pictorial-sculptural as well as performative and linguistic means for his art, often using everyday objects, newspaper clippings and other found objects. In the medium of photography, he combined his interests in elaborate stagings and created an extensive body of work that has not yet been sufficiently researched. This photograph is from a series he took near his Vienna studio on Simmeringer Hauptstraße. The models were his nephew Jawo, who wears a chain of apples around his neck, and his partner Ingeborg Schneider, whom Frieberger called "Huik". She sewed countless caps for him, which became his trademark.

Padhi Frieberger nutzte sowohl bildnerisch-skulpturale wie performative und sprachliche Mittel für seine Kunst, wobei er häufig Alltagsgegenstände, Zeitungsausschnitte und andere Fundstücke verarbeitete. Im Medium der Fotografie verband er seine Interessen in aufwändigen Inszenierungen und schuf ein umfangreiches Werk, das bislang noch nicht gebührend erforscht ist. Diese Aufnahme entstammt einer Serie, die er in der Nähe seiner Wiener Atelierwohnung an der Simmeringer Hauptstraße aufnahm. Als Modelle fungierten sein Neffe Jawo, der eine Kette aus Äpfeln um den Hals trägt, und seine Partnerin Ingeborg Schneider, die von Frieberger "Huik" genannt wurde. Sie nähte unzählige Kappen für ihn, die zu seinem Markenzeichen wurden.

Together with his wife Anna, Günter Brus performed "Transfusion" in Otto Muehl's basement studio ("Perinetkeller") without an audience in order to be able to pay particular attention to the design of the photographs. This action, unusual within his oeuvre, was not conceived as a continuous process, but aimed to create a tableau-like effect using painterly elements, which receded in his subsequent actions. For the first time, Brus integrated colour and Hoffenreich accordingly photographed on colour film. In addition to the theme of childbirth, elements from previous works such as "Self-Mutilation" also play a role. The ambivalence between erotic and destructive motifs characterizes this work, and the beautifully produced portfolio is a collector's item.

Gemeinsam mit seiner Frau Anna führte Günter Brus die Aktion "Transfusion" in Otto Mühl's Atelier (Perinetkeller) ohne Publikum durch, um besonderes Augenmerk auf die Gestaltung der Fotografien legen zu können. Diese für sein Werk ungewöhnliche Aktion war nicht als durchgehender Ablauf konzipiert, sondern zielte auf eine tableauhafte Wirkung unter Einsatz von malerischen Komponenten, die in seinen darauffolgenden Aktionen zurücktraten. Erstmals integrierte Brus hier Farbe und entsprechend fotografierte Hoffenreich auf Farbfilm. Neben der Geburtsthematik spielen auch Elemente aus vorangegangenen Werken wie etwa der "Selbstverstümmelung", eine Rolle. Die Ambivalenz zwischen erotischen und zerstörerischen Motiven zeichnet dieses Werk aus, das wunderschön produzierte Portfolio ist ein Sammlerstück.

As a result of the sexual revolution, new concepts of sex education also emerged in Germany in the 1970s. Will McBride's book "Zeig mal!" was exceptional even in the context of the politically motivated sex education of the "New Left" – its open approach to children's sexual feelings and homoeroticism was heavily criticized, so that he eventually took it off the market; today it is a sought-after and expensive collector's item. Above the large-format images is a narrow strip of text with children's comments and questions; in case of the present motif, it reads: "Mum, what are the girls doing there? – The two girls are hugging because they love each other".

In Folge der sexuellen Revolution entstanden im Deutschland der 1970er Jahre auch neue Konzepte der Sexualerziehung. Will McBrides Buch "Zeig mal!" war selbst im Rahmen der politisch motivierten Aufklärung der "Neuen Linken" ungewöhnlich – dessen offene Thematisierung von kindlichem Sexualempfinden und Homoerotik wurde heftig kritisiert, sodass er es schließlich vom Markt nahm; heute ist es ein gesuchtes und teures Sammlerstück. Oberhalb der großformatig abgedruckten Bilder verläuft ein schmales Schriftband mit kindlichen Kommentaren und Fragen, beim hier vorliegenden Motiv ist zu lesen: "Mama, was machen die Mädchen da? – Die beiden Mädchen umarmen sich, weil sie sich lieb haben".

"Sam Haskin's camera is for making poetry, for telling us what we already know but cannot tell ourselves. These pictures of a lovely girl and her hopeless longing for a man who will never come are an ode to loneliness", reads the foreword to "November Girl". The photo book is divided into seven parts, each dedicated to a day of the week; these consist of the image constellations that are so typical of Haskins, with landscapes and studio nudes placed together both individually and in various montages. The present motif impressively spreads over a full double page in the fourth chapter "Sunday".

"Sam Haskins setzt seine Kamera ein, um Poesie zu machen, um uns zu sagen, was wir bereits wissen, aber nicht selbst sagen können. Diese Bilder eines hübschen Mädchens und ihrer hoffnungslosen Sehnsucht nach einem Mann, der nie kommen wird, sind eine Ode an die Einsamkeit", heißt es im Vorwort zu "November Girl". Das Fotobuch gliedert sich in sieben, jeweils einem Wochentag gewidmete Teile; diese bestehen aus jenen für Haskins so typischen Bildkonstellationen, wobei Akt- und Landschaftsaufnahmen sowohl einzeln als auch in verschiedenen Montagen gesetzt sind. Das vorliegende Motiv erstreckt sich eindrucksvoll über eine ganze Doppelseite im vierten Kapitel "Sonntag".

This picture of a living room by the famous pioneer of American colour photography is a paradigmatic example of his visual language. In addition to the laconic choice of subjects from everyday culture, it captivates with the orange-brown colour palette typical of the time, but above all with the angle of view: Gently sloping lines of street intersections, building corners or room corners are a frequent compositional pattern in Shore's earlier, particularly influential work, for example in his „Uncommon Places“ from 1973.

Diese Interieur-Aufnahme des berühmten Pioniers der amerikanischen Farbfotografie zeigt dessen Bildsprache paradigmatisch. Neben der lakonischen Themenwahl aus der Alltagskultur besticht es durch die zeittypisch orangebraune Farbpalette, aber vor allem durch den Blickwinkel: Sanft schräg verlaufende Linien von Straßenkreuzungen, Gebäude- oder Raumecken sind ein häufiges Kompositionsmuster in Shores früherem, besonders einflussreichen Werk, etwa in seinen „Uncommon Places“ aus dem Jahr 1973.

In 1980 and 1981, the Polaroid Company invited Luigi Ghirri to its Amsterdam studio to take photographs with the new 20x24-inch camera. Although numerous props were provided, he brought his own found objects. As a trained surveyor and cartographer, Ghirri perceived the world as a legible terrain, a collection of signs, symbols and images, and he was particularly interested in reproductions. Fascinated by the tensions between the real world and its representation, he built simple yet complex constellations in the photographic image space, utilising the possibilities of perspective, mise-en-abyme, scale and superimposition. For this still life, he arranged a thin fabric with printed musical notes in front of the camera. The representational system of notation as a system of signs, the woven structure of the fabric and the photographic recording of its curves and folds are artfully interlaced.

Die Polaroid Company lud Luigi Ghirri in den Jahren 1980 und 1981 in deren Amsterdamer Studio ein, um dort mit der neuen 20x24-inch-Kamera zu fotografieren. Obwohl zahlreiche Requisiten zur Verfügung gestellt wurden, brachte Ghirri eigene Fundstücke mit. Als ausgebildeter Landvermesser und Kartograf nahm er die Welt als ein lesbares Terrain wahr, eine Ansammlung von Zeichen, Symbolen und Bildern, wobei ihn besonders Reproduktionen interessierten. Fasziniert von den Spannungen zwischen der realen Welt und ihrer Repräsentation baute er einfache und zugleich komplexe Konstellationen im fotografischen Bildraum, wobei er die Möglichkeiten von Perspektive, Mise-en-abyme, Maßstab und Überlagerung nutzt. Für das vorliegende Stilleben arrangierte Ghirri einen dünnen Stoff mit aufgedruckten Musiknoten vor der Kamera. Das Repräsentationssystem der Notation als Zeichensystem, die Webstruktur des Stoffes und die fotografische Aufzeichnung seiner Wölbungen und Faltungen überlagern sich kunstvoll.

Ulay, whose civil name is Frank Uwe Laysiepen, became best known for his body art and performances together with Marina Abramovic. Since the 1970s, one focus of his photographic work has been the examination of marginalised social groups and gender attributions, whereby he used Polaroid material in various film formats early on. In the 1990s, he created a series of large-format studio photographs with the 20x24-inch-camera, in which he thematised psychological states and questions of transcendence. He used glass vases as symbols of emptiness and fullness as well as of the ephemeral and transient. The blurring of forms shows his reflections on boundaries (of the body as well as the definition of identity) and the changeable flow of life.

Ulay, mit bürgerlichem Namen Frank Uwe Laysiepen, erlangte vor allem für seine Body Art und Performances gemeinsam mit Marina Abramovic internationale Anerkennung. Ein Schwerpunkt seiner fotografischen Arbeit war seit den 1970er Jahren die Auseinandersetzung mit gesellschaftlichen Randgruppen und Geschlechterzuschreibungen, wobei er schon früh Polaroid-Material in verschiedenen Filmformaten verwendete. In den 1990er Jahren schuf er eine Serie an großformatigen Studioaufnahmen mit der 20x24-inch-Kamera, in denen er psychische Zustände und Fragen der Transzendenz thematisierte. Dabei setzte er Glasvasen als Symbole für Leere und Fülle sowie für Vergänglichkeit ein. Im Verschwimmen der Formen spiegeln sich seine Reflexionen über Grenzen (des Körpers wie der Festschreibung von Identität) und den veränderlichen Fluss des Lebens.

Before Franco Fontana began taking photographs, he worked as a decorator for a furniture showroom. In the 1960s, he developed his innovative visual language in colour photography, which is characterised by flat pictorial spaces and shimmering contours. In combination with the intensity of his colour constellations and emphatically simple compositions, he created abstractions that nevertheless do not appear artificial.

MAGNUM

IN OUR TIME.

THE WORLD AS SEEN BY MAGNUM PHOTOGRAPHERS

Until today Magnum stands for documentary photography of the highest standards. Robert Capa, Henri Cartier-Bresson, George Rodger and David "Chim" Seymour founded the legendary photo agency in 1947, with the aim to work independently in a cooperative of likeminded photographers - as reporters, commentators and poets with a camera. Human interest and the search for the decisive moment were the central paradigms of the group.

The exhibition IN OUR TIME opens a window to the first forty years of Magnum with photographs of the initiators and over fifty other members, such as Werner Bischof, Ernst Haas, Erich Lessing, Eve Arnold, Marc Riboud, Elliott Erwitt, Inge Morath, René Burri, Bruce Davidson, Constantine Manos, Burk Uzzle, Bruno Barbey, Josef Koudelka, Gilles Peress, Susan Meiselas, Raymond Depardon and Sebastião Salgado.

It presents a retrospective view on decisive events of the second half of the 20th century and illustrates the diverse approaches of the different Magnum members. Moreover the pictures document the evolution of the medium and its uses itself, manifest in the varying contexts of publication: From the great magazines of the early years, such as Life and Paris Match, to monographic or thematic books and finally to the walls of the exhibition space.

The 270 large format prints from 59 photographers were produced during the late 1980s for the exhibition, which toured the USA, Japan and Europe from 1989 on to celebrate the first four decades of Magnum and 150 years of photography. OstLicht Photo Auction offers a set of this seminal exhibition within three auctions. It is a unique view on the ground-breaking work of the photo agency, which shaped our view of the world. From classic black and white to colour photography, these photographs bring together icons of our collective visual memory.

Many photographs are signed by the photographers, all are stamped by the estate administrators or by Magnum. They are gelatin silver prints in the format 51 x 61 cm or dye transfer color prints in the format 52 x 76 cm.

MAGNUM

IN OUR TIME.

THE WORLD AS SEEN BY MAGNUM PHOTOGRAPHERS

Magnum steht bis heute für Dokumentarfotografie auf höchstem Niveau. Robert Capa, Henri Cartier-Bresson, George Rodger und David "Chim" Seymour gründeten 1947 die legendäre Fotoagentur mit dem Ziel, in einer Gemeinschaft von gleichgesinnten Fotografen unabhängig zu arbeiten - als Reporter, Kommentatoren und Dichter mit der Kamera. Menschliches Interesse und die Suche nach dem entscheidenden Moment waren die zentralen Paradigmen der Gruppe.

Die Ausstellung IN OUR TIME öffnet ein Fenster zu den ersten vierzig Jahren von Magnum mit Fotografien der Initiatoren und über fünfzig weiteren Mitgliedern wie Werner Bischof, Ernst Haas, Erich Lessing, Eve Arnold, Marc Riboud, Elliott Erwitt, Inge Morath, René Burri, Bruce Davidson, Constantine Manos, Burk Uzzle, Bruno Barbey, Josef Koudelka, Gilles Peress, Susan Meiselas, Raymond Depardon und Sebastião Salgado.

Sie bietet einen Rückblick auf entscheidende Ereignisse der zweiten Hälfte des 20. Jahrhunderts und veranschaulicht die unterschiedlichen Ansätze der verschiedenen Magnum-Mitglieder. Darüber hinaus dokumentieren die Bilder die Entwicklung des Mediums und seiner Anwendungen selbst, die sich in den unterschiedlichen Publikationskontexten manifestieren: Von den großen Magazinen der Anfangsjahre, wie Life und Paris Match, über monografische oder thematische Bücher bis hin zu den Wänden der Ausstellungsräume.

Die 270 großformatigen Abzüge von 59 Fotografen wurden in den späten 1980er Jahren für die Ausstellung produziert, die ab 1989 durch die USA, Japan und Europa tourte, um die ersten vier Jahrzehnte von Magnum und 150 Jahre Fotografie zu feiern. OstLicht Photo Auction bietet im Rahmen von drei Auktionen ein Set dieser bahnbrechenden Ausstellung an. Es ist ein einzigartiger Blick auf die bahnbrechende Arbeit der Fotoagentur, die unseren Blick auf die Welt geprägt hat. Von der klassischen Schwarzweiß- bis zur Farbfotografie bringen diese Fotografien Ikonen unseres kollektiven visuellen Gedächtnisses zusammen.

Viele Fotografien sind von den Fotografen signiert, alle von den Nachlassverwaltern oder von Magnum gestempelt. Es handelt sich um Silbergelatineabzüge im Format 51 x 61 cm oder Dye-Transfer Farbabzüge im Format 52 x 76 cm.

Eve Arnold accompanied Marilyn Monroe on a multi-day trip through several US-states in 1955, during which the intrusiveness of fans required police protection. It was her second of a total of six photo assignments, during which Monroe developed a special trust in the photographer. Arnold succeeded in taking particularly intimate yet respectful photographs that deviated from the image usually conveyed of the childlike, naïve sex symbol.

Eve Arnold begleitete Marilyn Monroe 1955 auf einer Reise durch mehrere US-Bundesstaaten, bei der die Zudringlichkeit der Fans Polizeischutz erforderte. Es war ihr zweiter von insgesamt sechs Fotoaufträgen, bei denen Monroe ein besonderes Vertrauen zur Fotografin entwickelte. Arnold gelangen intime und doch respektvolle Aufnahmen, die vom üblicherweise transportierten Bild des kindlich-naiven Sexsymbols abweichen.

"My films were sent to Paris to be developed and enlarged, and my reports went around the world. Only afterwards I discovered that behind the armed militants shouting slogans with fists raised and behind a banner denouncing imperialism and calling for more democracy was a silhouette of the Statue of Liberty, also with her arm raised – a gesture that seemed ironic under the circumstances."

"Meine Filme wurden zum Entwickeln und Vergrößern nach Paris geschickt, und meine Berichte gingen um die Welt. Erst danach entdeckte ich, dass hinter den bewaffneten Militanten, die mit hochgestreckten Fäusten Parolen riefen, und hinter einem Banner, das den Imperialismus anprangerte und mehr Demokratie forderte, eine Silhouette der Freiheitsstatue zu sehen war, gleichfalls mit erhobenem Arm – eine Geste, die unter diesen Umständen ironisch anmutete."

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By submitting a written or telephone purchase order, an online bid or by participating in person as a room bidder, each bidder at OstLicht Auctions accepts the terms and conditions of the auction.

The auction is open to the public and shall be conducted in accordance with the regulations of the Trade, Commerce and Industry Regulation Act and in accordance with the legal conditions. Place of execution is the place of business of the Auction House and place of jurisdiction is Vienna.

The valuation and professional definition of the objects were carried out by experts of OstLicht Auction. Errors and misprints may occur. Corrections to the description in the online catalogue can be made up until the auction.

If a bidder is unable to attend the preview, we will be happy to provide additional condition reports or photographs by e-mail. Detailed high-resolution photographs and the back of the works can be viewed in our online catalogue www.ostlicht-auction.com.

Bids can be submitted in writing (letter or e-mail to: info@ostlicht-auction.com), via our homepage, or via other online platforms. The bids must contain the address of the client, mail and telephone number as well as the highest bid in EURO. The bid given by the bidder is the maximum price he is willing to pay without the premium. In any case, the bid will be knocked down at the lowest possible amount for the bidder and a maximum of one bid higher than the second highest bid.

For lots from 500 EURO we also accept telephone bids. Telephone bidders will be called by OstLicht Auctions before the requested lots are opened. However, we cannot guarantee that the telephone connection will be completed. Please register by to mail info@ostlicht-auction.com.

Room buyers will receive a bidding number upon presentation of identification or a valid credit card before the auction begins.

The auction house reserves the right to request proof of liquidity from bidders, to require an advance payment for high bids or the deposit of a valid credit card.

The purchase price for lots consists of the hammer price plus the premium of usually 24% (incl. VAT). Exceptions are those lots marked with a red * next to the estimate. Here the premium is 20% of the hammer price plus 13% VAT of the total price, if these remain or shipped within the EU.

For all lots exported to third countries outside of the European Community or bought with a valid UID number, the Premium is 20% only (VAT free export).

In the case of works by some living photographers and photographers who died less than 70 years ago and were listed at bildrecht.at, we are obliged to collect the droit de suite. This is for the benefit of the artist or his heirs. This amounts to the percentages defined by the legislator depending on the hammer price. It is not payable for hammer prices below EUR 2,500. The fee amounts to 4% for hammer prices up to 50,000 EUR, 3% of the further 150,000 EUR. The droit de suite will be added to the buyer's invoice. These lots are marked with a black * after the estimate.

You also have the option of bidding live or placing pre-bids via our own platform (www.ostlicht-auction.com) at no additional cost. If bidding via one of the live bidding platforms (e.g., LiveAuctioneers), an additional fee up to 5% will be charged, depending on the platform.

The auction will take place in the order of the catalogue numbering. The catalogue text of the printed edition of the auction catalogue shall be relevant. The auctioneer is entitled to reject bids and to cancel a knockdown already awarded in order to further increase the value of the item in question.

The starting price is the price stated in the catalogue, unless there are several higher written bids. The hammer price is increased by approx. 10% of the starting price. If there are several identical written bids, the first bid received will be accepted. In principle, no underbids will be accepted. The prices are in EURO, also the invoices must be paid in EURO.

Ownership of the auctioned goods shall not be transferred to the buyer until payment has been made in full. In the event of a successful bid, the buyer undertakes to accept and pay for the lot auctioned by him. The Auctioneer shall not be entitled to take back auctioned items.

The items are insured until 14 days after the auction or until the buyer takes possession of them before the expiry of this period, after which the buyer is liable for the lots purchased by him.

The auctioned lots will only be handed over to the highest bidder after full payment of the hammer price and the buyer's premium, as well as any applicable taxes and fees.

Room bidders must pay for and collect the auctioned item at the end of the auction, unless there are other agreements with the auctioneer. If payment is made by credit card, 3% will be added to the purchase price. For lots purchased in writing, by telephone or online, you will receive an invoice with bank details as soon as possible. These must be paid within 8 days of receipt net without deductions and including bank charges. In the event of late payment, interest on arrears will be charged at a rate of 5% above the base rate of the Austrian National Bank. Costs for packaging, transport and transport insurance are shown separately in the invoice. These are charged at cost price, and we make every effort to offer the most reasonable transport and insurance rates. A storage fee of 5-20 EURO per day and item may be charged for auctioned items that have not been collected after 30 working days from the date of invoice.

In the event of refused acceptance, late payment or non-payment, the buyer shall be liable for all damages and resulting costs.

Lots that have not been paid for or have only been partially paid for may be auctioned again. In this case, the original buyer shall be liable for the reduced price and shall not be entitled to any additional proceeds.

All auction items are available for personal viewing prior to the auction, bidders may request a more specific condition report and more pictures until 48 hours before the auction. Also, the online catalogue gives high-resolution images of front and back of the works.

VERSTEIGERUNGSBEDINGUNGEN

Mit der Abgabe eines schriftlichen oder telefonischen Kaufauftrages, eines Online-Gebots oder durch die persönliche Teilnahme als Saalbieter erkennt jeder Bieter der OstLicht Photo Auction die Versteigerungsbedingungen ausdrücklich an.

Die Versteigerung ist öffentlich und wird nach den Bestimmungen der Gewerbeordnung unter Einhaltung der gesetzlichen Bedingungen durchgeführt. Erfüllungsort ist der Geschäftssitz des Auktionshauses und Gerichtsstand ist Wien.

Die Schätzung und fachliche Bestimmung der Objekte erfolgen durch Experten der OstLicht Auction. Irrtums- und Druckfehlerberichtigungen bleiben vorbehalten. Berichtigungen der Beschreibung im Onlinekatalog können bis zur Versteigerung vorgenommen werden.

Ist einem Bieter die Vorbesichtigung nicht möglich, senden wir gerne zusätzliche Zustandsberichte oder Detailfotos per E-Mail. Hochauflösende Fotografien aller Lose inklusive derer Rückseiten können Sie in unserem Online-Katalog www.ostlicht-auction.com einsehen.

Gebote können vorab schriftlich (per Brief oder E-Mail an info@ostlicht-auction.com) oder über unsere Homepage bzw. über weitere Onlineplattformen abgegeben werden. Die Angebote müssen die Anschrift des Auftraggebers, die Mailadresse, die Telefonnummer sowie das Höchstgebot in EURO enthalten. Das vom Bieter abgegebene Gebot ist der Höchstpreis, den er ohne Aufschlag zu zahlen bereit ist. In jedem Fall erfolgt der Zuschlag zum geringstmöglichen Betrag für den Bieter und maximal ein Gebot höher als das zweithöchste Gebot.

Für Lose ab 500 EURO nehmen wir auch telefonische Gebote an. Telefonbieter werden vor Aufruf der gewünschten Lose von OstLicht Auction angerufen. Eine Garantie für das Zustandekommen der Telefonverbindung kann jedoch nicht gegeben werden. Bitte registrieren Sie sich per E-Mail an info@ostlicht-auction.com.

Saalbieter bekommen nach Vorlage eines Ausweises oder einer gültigen Kreditkarte vor Beginn der Auktion eine Bieternummer.

Das Auktionshaus behält sich das Recht vor, einen Nachweis der Liquidität von Bietern einzufordern, eine Vorauszahlung für hohe Gebote oder das Hinterlegen einer gültigen Kreditkarte zu verlangen.

Der Kaufpreis für Lose besteht aus dem Zuschlagpreis (Hammerpreis) zuzüglich des Premium von zumeist 24% (inkl. MwSt.). Ausgenommen sind jene Kunstwerke, die mit rotem * neben dem Startpreis bezeichnet sind (Vollbesteuerung). Hier beträgt das Premium 20% vom Hammerpreis plus 13 % Mehrwertsteuer vom Gesamtpreis, sofern die Lose in die EU verschickt werden oder verbleiben.

Für Lose, die in Drittländer exportiert oder mit gültiger UID-Nummer versteigert werden, beträgt das Premium für alle Lose nur 20%.

Bei Werken mancher lebenden FotografInnen und BildautorInnen die nicht länger als vor 70 Jahren verstorben sind und bei bildrecht.at gelistet wurden, sind wir zur Einhebung der Folgerechtsabgabe verpflichtet. Sie kommt der KünstlerIn bzw. ihrer ErbInnen zugute. Diese beläuft sich auf die vom Gesetzgeber festgelegten Prozentsätze in Abhängigkeit vom Höchstgebot. Sie entfällt bei Zuschlägen unter 2.500 EUR. Die Gebühr beträgt 4% bei Zuschlägen bis 50.000 EUR (Hammerpreis), 3% von den weiteren 150.000 EUR. Die Folgegebühren wird im Zuge der Rechnungslegung dem Käufer hinzugerechnet. Diese Lose sind mit schwarzem * nach dem Schätzwert gekennzeichnet.

Wenn über eine der Plattformen für Live Bieten (z.B. LiveAuctioneers) geboten wird, werden je nach Plattform bis 5% an zusätzlicher Gebühr verrechnet. Sie haben aber auch die Möglichkeit, ohne weitere Kosten über unsere eigene Plattform (www.ostlicht-auction.com) live zu bieten oder Vorgebote abzugeben.

Die Versteigerung erfolgt in der Reihenfolge der Katalognummerierung. Maßgeblich ist der Katalogtext der gedruckten Ausgabe des Auktionskatalogs. Der Auktionator ist berechtigt, Angebote abzulehnen und einen bereits erteilten Zuschlag aufzuheben, um den betreffenden Gegenstand weiter zu steigern.

Der Ausrufpreis ist der im Katalog angeführte Startpreis, sofern nicht mehrere höhere schriftliche Gebote vorliegen.

Gesteigert wird um ca. 10% des Ausrufpreises. Liegen mehrere gleiche schriftliche Höchstgebote vor, so wird zu Gunsten des zuerst eingelangten Gebotes entschieden. Untergebote werden prinzipiell nicht akzeptiert. Die Preise verstehen sich in EURO, auch die Rechnungen müssen in EURO bezahlt werden.

Das Eigentum der versteigerten Lose geht erst nach vollständiger Bezahlung auf den Käufer über. Im Falle des Zuschlages verpflichtet sich der Ersteher zur Abnahme und Zahlung des von ihm versteigerten Loses. Eine Rücknahme versteigerten Gegenstände durch den Versteigerer ist ausgeschlossen.

Die Werke sind bis zur Übernahme des Käufers oder maximal 14 Tage nach der Auktion versichert, ab dann haftet der Käufer für die von ihm erstandenen Lose.

Das versteigerte Los wird dem Höchstbieter erst nach vollständiger Bezahlung des Zuschlagpreises und des Aufgeldes, sowie anfallender Steuern und Gebühren ausgehändigt.

Saalbieter müssen das versteigerte Gut nach Beendigung der Auktion bezahlen und abholen, außer es wurden andere Vereinbarungen mit dem Auktionator getroffen. Bei Bezahlung mit Kreditkarte werden 3% auf den Kaufpreis aufgeschlagen. Für schriftlich, telefonisch oder online versteigerte Lose erhalten Sie umgehend eine Rechnung samt Bankverbindung. Diese ist innerhalb von 8 Tagen nach Erhalt ohne Abzug und inklusive Bankgebühren zu bezahlen. Bei Zahlungsverzug werden Verzugszinsen in Höhe von 5% über dem Basiszinssatz der Österreichischen Nationalbank verrechnet.

Kosten für Verpackung, Transport und Transportversicherung sind in der Rechnung separat ausgewiesen. Diese werden zum Selbstkostenpreis verrechnet und wir bemühen uns sehr, die günstigsten Transport- und Versicherungstarife anbieten zu können. Für versteigerte Gegenstände, die nach Ablauf von 30 Werktagen ab Rechnungsdatum nicht abgeholt wurden, kann eine Lagergebühr von 5 bis 20 EURO pro Tag und Gegenstand verrechnet werden.

Bei Annahmeverweigerung, Zahlungsverzug oder Nichtbezahlung haftet der Käufer für alle daraus entstehenden Schäden und Folgekosten.

Nicht bezahlte oder nur teilweise bezahlte Lose können nochmals versteigert werden. In diesem Fall haftet der ursprüngliche Käufer für den Minderpreis und hat auf einen gegebenenfalls erzielten Mehrerlös keinen Anspruch.

Alle Auktionslose können vor der Auktion persönlich besichtigt werden, potenzielle Bieter können einen genaueren Zustandsbericht und weitere Bilder per Mail bis 48 Stunden vor Beginn der Auktion anfordern. Auch der Online-Katalog gibt mit hochauflösenden Bildern und die Ansicht der Rückseiten einen genaueren Eindruck von den Werken.

GLOSSARY

NAME OF ARTIST / DESCRIPTION

While every reasonable effort was made to provide correct attributions, accurate transcriptions of inscriptions, stamps or dates, OstLicht Photo Auction does not assume the responsibility for the contents of descriptive texts.

TITLES

Generally accepted titles for photographs have been put in quotation marks; in other cases, descriptive titles have been used.

PRINTS

A vintage print is one made at roughly the same time as the negative by the photographer himself or by a person or procedure satisfactory to the photographer. Specific dates of positive prints are rarely known. This distinction between a vintage print and a print done considerably later would be expressed with the date referring to the production of the negative. In case of a gelatin silver print: 1920, Vintage silver print or 1920, Gelatin silver print, printed later. The approximate date, year, or decade of a positive print is given when possible, based on the OstLicht's knowledge of the history of the photograph, its provenance, and our visual assessment of the photograph's physical characteristics. We don't guarantee the printing date of the photograph.

MEASUREMENTS

Measurements are given height preceding width. Unless otherwise indicated dimensions given are those of the actual image size (excluding any margins). Some photographs appear in the catalogue without margins illustrated.

FRAMING AND MATTING

Photographs described as framed are sold in the frames in which they have been offered. OstLicht does not take responsibility for the appearance of the frames or mats, nor for their conformity to proper standards of conservation.

CONDITION

Prospective bidders are urged to inspect lots at our public viewing or ask for a condition report at our auction department. For condition reports please contact: info@ostlicht-auction.com

We wish to inform you that a significant portion of the images showcased in this auction comprises photographs aged between 30 to 120 years old. It's important to recognize that subtle changes in image tonality, yellowing of the paper, and other natural alterations can occur over time. Additionally, minor handling marks such as small corner and edge damages are to be expected as part of the aging process. Please note that original retouching and other treatments applied during production are integral to the object's historical context, rather than being considered damage or restoration. If you have any inquiries about the condition of specific lots, we warmly encourage you to contact us at least 48 hours prior to the auction commencement, and we will be pleased to provide you with a condition report.

GLOSSAR

ZU- / BESCHREIBUNG DER OBJEKTE

TITEL

Die durch Publikationen und andere Quellen (wie eigenhändige Beschriftung der Fotografen) gesicherten Originaltitel der Werke werden in Anführungszeichen angegeben; in den übrigen Fällen handelt es sich um beschreibende Titel.

DATIERUNG DER PRINTS

Als Vintage-Print wird ein Abzug bezeichnet, der in unmittelbarer zeitlicher Nähe zur Aufnahme bzw. Produktion des Negatives vom Fotografen selbst oder einer Person seines Vertrauens angefertigt wurde. Exakte Datumsangaben für die Positive sind nur in den seltensten Fällen bekannt. Die Unterscheidung zwischen einem Vintage-Print und einem später produzierten Abzug wird in Relation zur Datierung des Negatives ausgedrückt, beispielsweise bei einem Silbergelatineprint: 1920, Vintage silver print oder 1920, Gelatin silver print, printed later. Eine möglichst präzise Datierung, zumindest das Jahr oder Jahrzehnt der Entstehung wird für jedes Lot angegeben. Die Angaben basieren auf dem Wissen des OstLicht-Expertenteams zur Geschichte der jeweiligen Fotografie, ihrer Provenienz und visueller Begutachtung. Für die Angaben kann keine Gewähr übernommen werden.

MASSANGABEN

Bei den Maßangaben folgen die Maße der Bildbreite jenen der Bildhöhe. Sofern nicht anders angegeben, beziehen sich diese Maße auf das tatsächliche Bildformat ohne jegliche Ränder. Einige Fotografien werden im Katalog ohne Rand abgebildet.

RAHMUNG UND PASSEPARTOUTS

Die als gerahmt oder montiert angeführten Fotografien werden als solche angeboten und verkauft. OstLicht übernimmt keine Verantwortung für den Zustand der mitgelieferten Passepartouts bzw. Untersatzkartons und Rahmen, auch in Hinblick auf konservatorische Standards.

ZUSTAND

Interessenten und Bieter werden ersucht, den Zustand der Lots anlässlich der öffentlichen Vorbesichtigung zu prüfen oder einen detaillierten Zustandsbericht anzufordern: info@ostlicht-auction.com

Wir möchten Sie darauf hinweisen, dass ein erheblicher Teil der in dieser Auktion gezeigten Bilder zwischen 30 und 120 Jahre alte Fotografien sind. Es ist wichtig, sich darüber im Klaren zu sein, dass es im Laufe der Zeit zu subtilen Farbveränderungen, Vergilbung des Papiers und anderen natürlichen Veränderungen kommen kann. Darüber hinaus sind kleinere Gebrauchsspuren wie kleine Ecken- und Kantenbeschädigungen als Teil des Alterungsprozesses zu erwarten. Bitte beachten Sie, dass ursprüngliche Retuschen und andere Behandlungen, die während der Produktion vorgenommen wurden, zum historischen Kontext des Objekts gehören und nicht als Beschädigung oder Restaurierung angesehen werden. Wenn Sie Fragen zum Zustand bestimmter Lose haben, bitten wir Sie, sich mindestens 48 Stunden vor Auktionsbeginn mit uns in Verbindung zu setzen, damit wir Ihnen ein Zustandsprotokoll erstellen können.
